'Thank You' to the pupils at Rosherville Primary School who collected and donated clothing for the Homeless at Gravesend Sanctuary, as their Lent Giving Project. The items were gratefully received and have already been distributed to those in need. A Certificate awaits on their return to school!

Our sincere thanks to Steve, Ross and Matthew at Horlocks Funeral Directors who collected Easter eggs and chocolate bunnies for St Botolph's Church to distribute to local children.

The Annual Parish Council Meeting is on 28th April immediately following the Sung Eucharist and will be held in the church hall at St Botolph's. Everyone is invited to this important meeting

Prayers please for our good friends at St Botolph's, Leila and Reza, who have been moved to Slough. We give thanks for their faith, their example and their friendship; may God bless and protect them in all that the future holds. If you wish to contribute to a gift for them, please place it in the basket provided and Fr Gordon will take it when he visits them. (Basket also available next week, 14th April)
